

100 Days of President Trump in Office

An analysis presented by academic experts from the United States of America

European Parliament, Room ASP 1G3
Thursday, April 27th,
from 08:30 - 11:30 am

Vereinte Europäische Linke • Nordische Grüne Linke

FRAKTION IM EUROPÄISCHEN PARLAMENT

GUE/NGL
www.guengl.eu

Programme

08:30

opening and welcome by Dimitris Papadimoulis, MEP, Vice-President European Parliament, Syriza delegation in GUE/NGL
Panel debate (moderator Helmut Scholz, MEP, Die Linke Delegation in GUE/NGL)

08:45

Dr. James Skelly: The red button - How is President Trump responding to crisis situations in Korea and in the Middle East?

Dr. James Skelly is the founder and Academic Director of The Centre on Critical Thinking and has been involved as a Director Emeritus of the Baker Institute for Peace and Conflict Studies at Juniata College in Pennsylvania where he had served for many years as a Senior Fellow.

09:30

Dr. Anastasia Romanou: Crisis, what Crisis? How does President Trump change climate change policies of the U.S.?

Dr Anastasia (Natassa) Romanou is research faculty at NASA's Goddard Institute for Space Studies in the Columbia University in New York. Her focus of studies is Climate Change and the Earth's global carbon cycle. She studied Physics in the University of Athens in Greece and completed her doctoral and postdoctoral work in various academic and research institutions in the United States.

10:15

Ethan Young: The battle of conservative vs progressive policies - A summary of 100 days of President Trump in office. Will Trump unite the American left?

Ethan Young is a Brooklyn based political analyst and activist who works with Left Labor Project NYC. He actively supported the campaign for Bernie Sanders.

Followed by Q & A

11:15

closing remarks by Matt Carthy, MEP, Sinn Fein delegation in GUE/NGL

